THE AMERICAN SEMESTER PROGRAM MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY Short Course Application 2017

Michigan State University seeks to admit students who provide evidence of intellectual performance, good character, and potential, which will permit them to profit from programs of the academic rigor of those, offered by Michigan State. The University recognizes that a secure environment enhances learning opportunities. As part of the admissions process, we require applicants to respond to the following questions. Information provided in response to these Questions needs to be reviewed, but rarely results in denial of admission.

1. Have you ever been expelled, suspended, disciplined, or placed on probation by any secondary school or college you have attend because of academic dishonesty, financial impropriety, or an offense that harmed or had the potential to harm others?

Yes

No

2. Have you ever been convicted of a criminal offense (including guilty or no contest please and juvenile court proceedings) other than minor traffic violations or are their criminal charges pending against you at this time?

Yes

No

If you answer yes to either of these questions, please explain in an attached letter. If circumstances arise in the future (until the time you begin the program) that make your answers to the above questions inaccurate, misleading, or incomplete, you must provide the admission team at the American Semester Program with updated information.
